

1967

Rolvenden enjoyed its best gala day

Judged best float was the one entered by Tenterden Youth Club, which depicted the ship from the Borough's coat of Arms. Second was Rolvenden British Legion Men's Section's entry — a camel carrying sisters Susan (16) and Heather Mackie (18) and Rosemary Seymour, also 18, who were dressed in harem fashion.

Rolvenden lodge of the Royal Antediluvian Order of Buffaloes' space ship gained third prize.

Kent Messenger 16 June 1967

TENTERDEN'S coat-of-arms was the inspiration for this ship which won first prize for Tenterden Youth Club when they took it to Rolvenden Carnival.

Youth must have music

TENTERDEN Youth Club was granted a music and dancing licence at Cranbrook court on Monday.

Kent Messenger 26 June 1967

Tenterden Youth Club