The principal of the school, Emma Brookes trained at The Royal Ballet School and Bird College of Performing Arts. She had a 10 year professional dance career encompassing Classical Ballet, Tap, Contemporary, Modern, Jazz and Street genres.

Work in the dance world of theatre, variety shows, pantomime, film and television has given her a wealth of experience in England and across the world.

She is a fully qualified ISTD teacher and has taught Ballet, Modern and Tap as well as Street and GCSE dance for many years. Her pupils have consistently had excellent exam results.

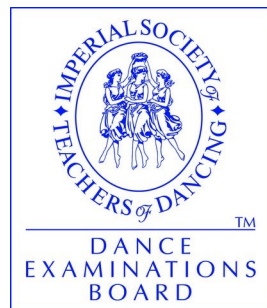

Emma's teaching expertise covers very young children through to adults with many of her students going into the dance profession.

Emma is a Tenterden Resident and a proud Mum of two.
